These newsletters are for entertainment and informational purposes only, and concepts and strategies shared are ideas that have worked for members of our team, students, clients and friends. They are not specific business advice for your business. Always use your own judgment and/or get the advice of professionals to find the right strategies for your business and your particular situation. [if your topic is business oriented]

From time to time I endorse third-party products or programs, and often there is some compensation or commission for that endorsement. But please be assured that of hundreds of endorsement requests that I receive, I only pass along the small number that I truly believe are worth your consideration. I value your time and trust and I give my honest opinions of everything that I recommend.
